

To Make a Simple Cloak

Measure from the center back of your neck to the floor or whatever length you want the cloak to be. You will need cloth of at least that width and twice that long.

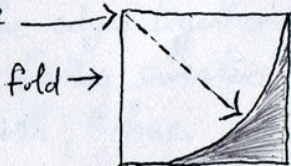

Fold the cloth in half end to end.

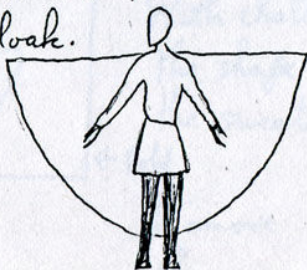

Pin the edges evenly together.

Fasten one end of a string to a safety pin. Measure the string out to the width of the cloth and fasten it to a piece of chalk. Pin the safety pin here → and use the string like a compass to draw a quarter of a circle thus,

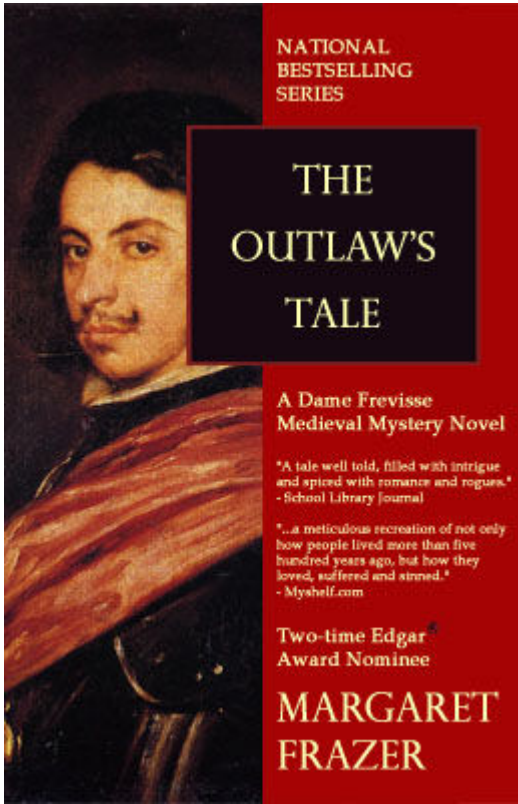

Cut away the shaded portion. You now have a semi-circle. Hem all the way around and you have your cloak.

Place it around your shoulders and pin either at center front or on one shoulder.

ACT OF MERCY, ACT OF MURDER

Leaving the safety of her nunnery walls behind, Dame Frevisse is drawn into an unholy web of treachery and deceit. Waylaid on the King's Highway by a band of outlaws, Frevisse is shocked to discover that their leader is her long-lost cousin Nicholas. When he pleads with her to help him obtain a pardon for his crimes, she finds herself trapped between the harsh edicts of the law and the mercy of her vows.

But even as she struggles to restore his fortunes, Frevisse must fight to save his soul... and his life. Before the outlaw's tale can be told, the saintly nun will find herself locked in a manor house of murder, caught between the holy passions of the heart and the sinful greeds of man.

Available in paperback, hardcover, and e-book.
<http://www.margaretfrazer.com>

